

Moses:

The God of Israel says, "Please let my people go."

Why have you brought all this trouble on your people, Lord? Ever since I went to Pharaoh things have been worse for the people and you have done nothing to help them.

Pharaoh:

No, why should I listen to him? I don't know God and I won't let the people go. Stop this. You're distracting the people from their work.